

ELECTRICAL AND MECHATRONICS (100%)

Electrical Engineering in Plant Construction

Your Tasks

- Contribute to production and assembly with a focus on electrical engineering
- Independent assembly of components and switchgear cabinet construction
- Preparation of project-specific electrical diagram
- Occasional assignments for assembly and commissioning on-site at our customers' facilities
- Support with parts management
- Close collaboration with the technical team

Your Profile

- Completed vocational training with initial professional experience
- Background in mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, or mechatronics
- Broad technical understanding
- Solution-oriented and hands-on mindset
- Strong focus on quality
- Professional appearance and communication skills
- Willingness to travel occasionally
- Category B driver's license

Our Offer

- ✓ Comprehensive introduction and training in our technology
- ✓ Independent work in a small, dynamic team
- ✓ Secure position in a financially stable and growing industry
- ✓ Opportunity to contribute to the development of a future-oriented technology
- ✓ Employment under the collective agreement of the metal technology industry
- ✓ Overpayment possible depending on qualifications

We look forward to receiving your application at +43 664 9127939 or by e-mail at johanna.summer@vee.energy

www.vee.energy

VEE[®]
valuable ecological energy